

Amazing. It's a word you likely use, but can you describe it? That's a tough one. But if I asked you, "Is God amazing?" you would answer in the affirmative.

Consecrated. It's a word Cadets use every time they recite their Code. It is not an easy word to understand. But we, like the Israelites, are expected to consecrate ourselves.

The first section of our theme verse reminds us to prepare. In order to fully enjoy and appreciate all God provides, we must set ourselves apart as sacred, ready to be used for holy purposes.

The verse then continues to encourage us. We look around and see incredible animals, we hear innumerable sounds, we marvel at our intricate bodies, we use our God-given gifts to create impressive buildings, and are astounded by His amazing grace toward us.

The Cadets in this church are members of an organization consisting of clubs in Canada, the United States, Kenya, Uganda, South Sudan, Ukraine, and partner clubs in New Zealand and Australia. The Calvinist Cadet Corps is an independent ministry, not connected to, or receiving funding from, any denomination. We rely on your gifts and offerings to allow us to continue providing ministry materials for the boys and counselors.
